DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on January 3, 2001 and March 21, 2002 are in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statements are being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 6, 8-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nakatani et al (US Patent 4,524,315) and Tanaka et al (US 4,068,934) incorporated in Nakatani et al.

As to claims 1, 13 and 14, Nakatani et al disclose an image processing apparatus comprising: input means for inputting image information (column 2, lines 46-50); determination means for determining whether an input image contains a mark indicative of a specific image (column 1, lines 30 – 48); setting means for setting allowable time necessary for the determination to be made by said determination means (column 1, lines 36 – 48); and control means for terminating determination processing by said determination means in a case where it cannot be determined whether the input image contains the mark indicative of a specific image within the allowable time set by said setting means (column 1, lines 36 – 48).

As to claims 6 and 12, Nakatani et al disclose output means for outputting the image, which has been input by said input means, to printing means; wherein said output means outputs the input image in a case where the mark indicative of a specific image is not detected in the input image within the allowable time (column 2, lines 1-5).

As to claim 8, Nakatani et al disclose output by said output means is, suspended in a case where said determination means determines that the mark indicative of a specific image is contained in the input image (column 1, lines 30-48).

As to claim 9, Nakatani et al disclose the allowable time is dynamically variable (column 1, lines 30-48).

As to claim 10, Nakatani et al disclose the mark indicative of a specific image includes a watermark (column 1, lines 30-48).

As to claims 11 and 15, Tanaka et al disclose a host computer incorporating the image processing apparatus set forth in claim 1 (column 1, lines 47-64).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2-5, 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
